

UNUSUAL DESIGN OF CHURCH ROOM

11-4-59
A steeply sloping room, rising almost from the ground and pitched at an angle of 60 degrees, is the feature of this Church of Christ being built in Bryant Street, Rockdale. Rolled steel joists, about 36 feet long, will support the sheets of aluminium covering the rafters.