Endorsement

The role of The Churches of Christ Property Trust is, amongst other things:

- to act as the corporate trustee for the Conference of Churches of Christ in NSW (its churches, ministry teams, ministries, etc) – in particular, buying, holding, leasing, and selling real property etc;
- to provide an incorporated body (entity) under which churches can apply for local, state, and federal government grants;
- to manage the Churches of Christ Investment Fund (into which churches can deposit funds and from which churches can borrow funds); and
- to manage bequest trust funds (including disbursement of funds to the Grants Assessment Committee).

Please comment on the Nominee's experience and suitability to serve on The Churches of Christ Property Trust.

What spiritual support will your church give to an individual serving in this way?
